UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

JALINSKI ADVISORY GROUP, INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

FORTE MANAGEMENT, LLC,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 18-cv-00024

COMPLAINT (JURY TRIAL DEMANDED)

Plaintiff Jalinski Advisory Group, Inc. (“JAG”), for its Complaint against defendant Forte Management, LLC (“FM”), alleges as follows:

Nature of Action and Relief Sought

1. All of the claims herein arise out of and are based on FM’s willful infringement of JAG’s trademark rights, which FM is well of aware of but chooses to disregard.

2. JAG owns the registered trademarks “The Financial Quarterback” and “Financial Quarterback” (collectively the “Financial Quarterback Trademark”) under which it (a) offers financial advisory and investment management services, and (b) provides educational services in the field of financial and wealth management (the “Educational Services”). JAG provides these services through the following mediums, among others: (1) broadcasts via traditional “over-the air” radio stations, on-line-streaming through the internet and podcasts, and regularly scheduled, weekly radio programs hosted by radio personality and financial expert Josh Jalinski (“Jalinski”) (the “Radio Programs”); (2) seminars and other educational services for clients and members of the public concerning financial and wealth management; and (3) television, film and other broadcast and public appearances by Jalinski as an educational and motivational speaker concerning financial and wealth management. JAG additionally provides for the dissemination of news, information and education regarding personal finance and wealth/investment management.

3. FM has used JAG’s Financial Quarterback Trademark in offering (a) its own accounting, tax, business management, financial, financial management, financial planning, and financial advisory services to its clients and (b) education to clients through broadcast appearances, seminars and on-line videos, blogs, bulletins, e-books and alerts, public presentations to clients, and other public appearances, publications and presentations directed to potential clients and the general public, all in violation of federal and state law. FM has failed to cease its use of JAG’s trademark even after receiving a cease-and-desist letter from JAG’s counsel.

4. FM’s unlawful conduct has caused and will continue to cause serious and irreparable harm to JAG. Consumers are likely to be confused as to a perceived affiliation, connection, association, sponsorship, endorsement, approval or permission received from JAG and the Radio Programs that does not exist. FM’s conduct is likely to dilute the distinctive and source-identifying quality of JAG’s trademark and to damage, erode and diminish the economic value of JAG’s trademark, which JAG alone has the right to commercially exploit.

5. JAG seeks injunctive and monetary relief against FM’s acts of federal trademark infringement, unfair competition, false designation of origin, and trademark dilution in violation of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq.; and related acts of trademark infringement, unfair competition, deceptive business practices and trademark dilution under New York law, including New York General Business Law §§ 133, 349 and 360-L.
